volume viii

here they come
here they come
here they come
some are walking, some are riding
here they come
and some are flying, some just gliding released after years of being kept in hiding they're climbing up the ladder rung by rung

(c) 1966 beechwood music corporation

enter the young they've learned to think
more than you think they think not only learned to think, but to care not only learned to think, but to dare
enter the young

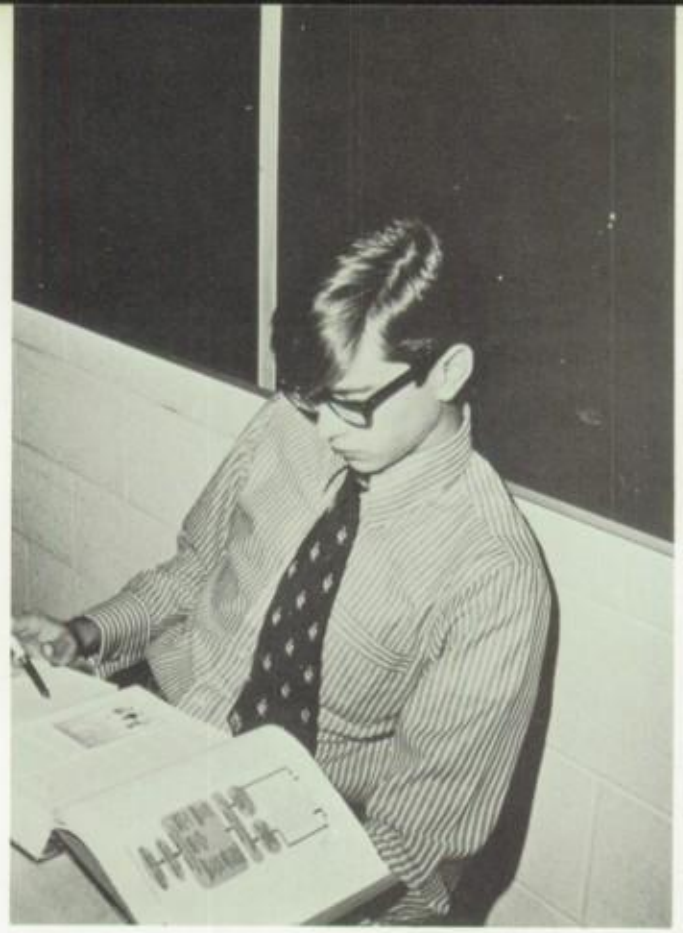
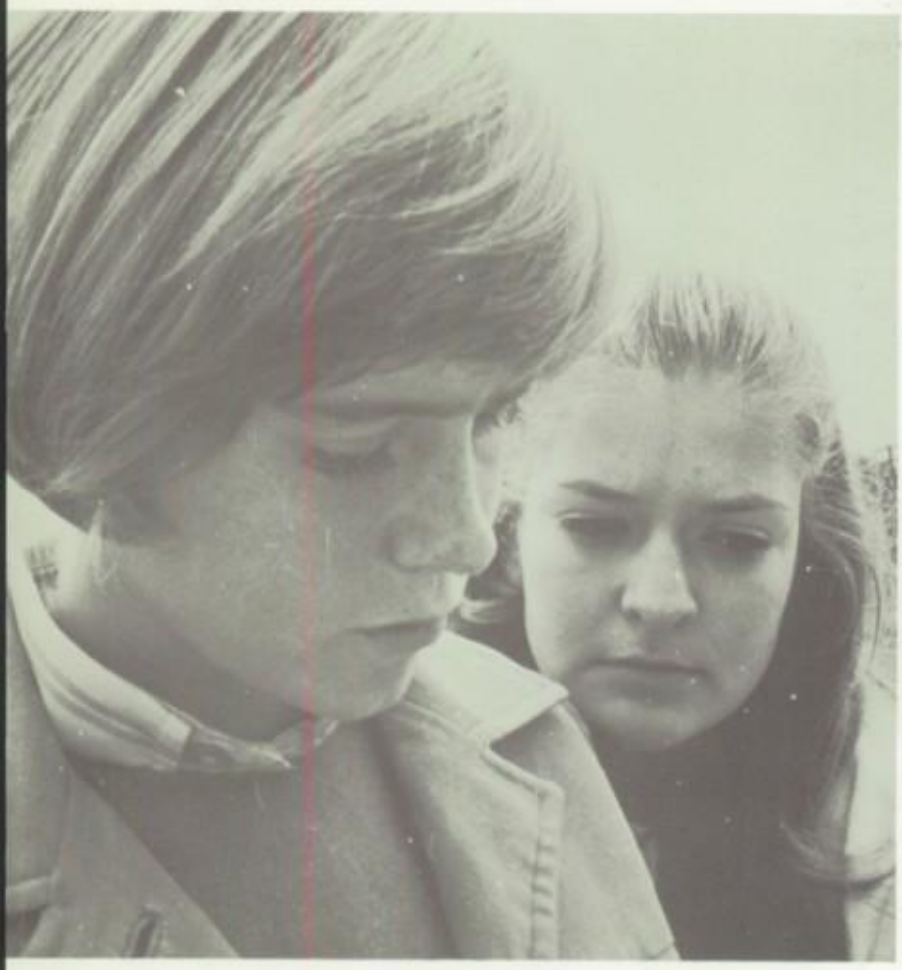
(c) 1966 beechwood music corporation





here they come
some with questions, some decisions
here they come
and some with facts and some with visions of a place to multiply without the use of divisions to win a prize that no one's ever won

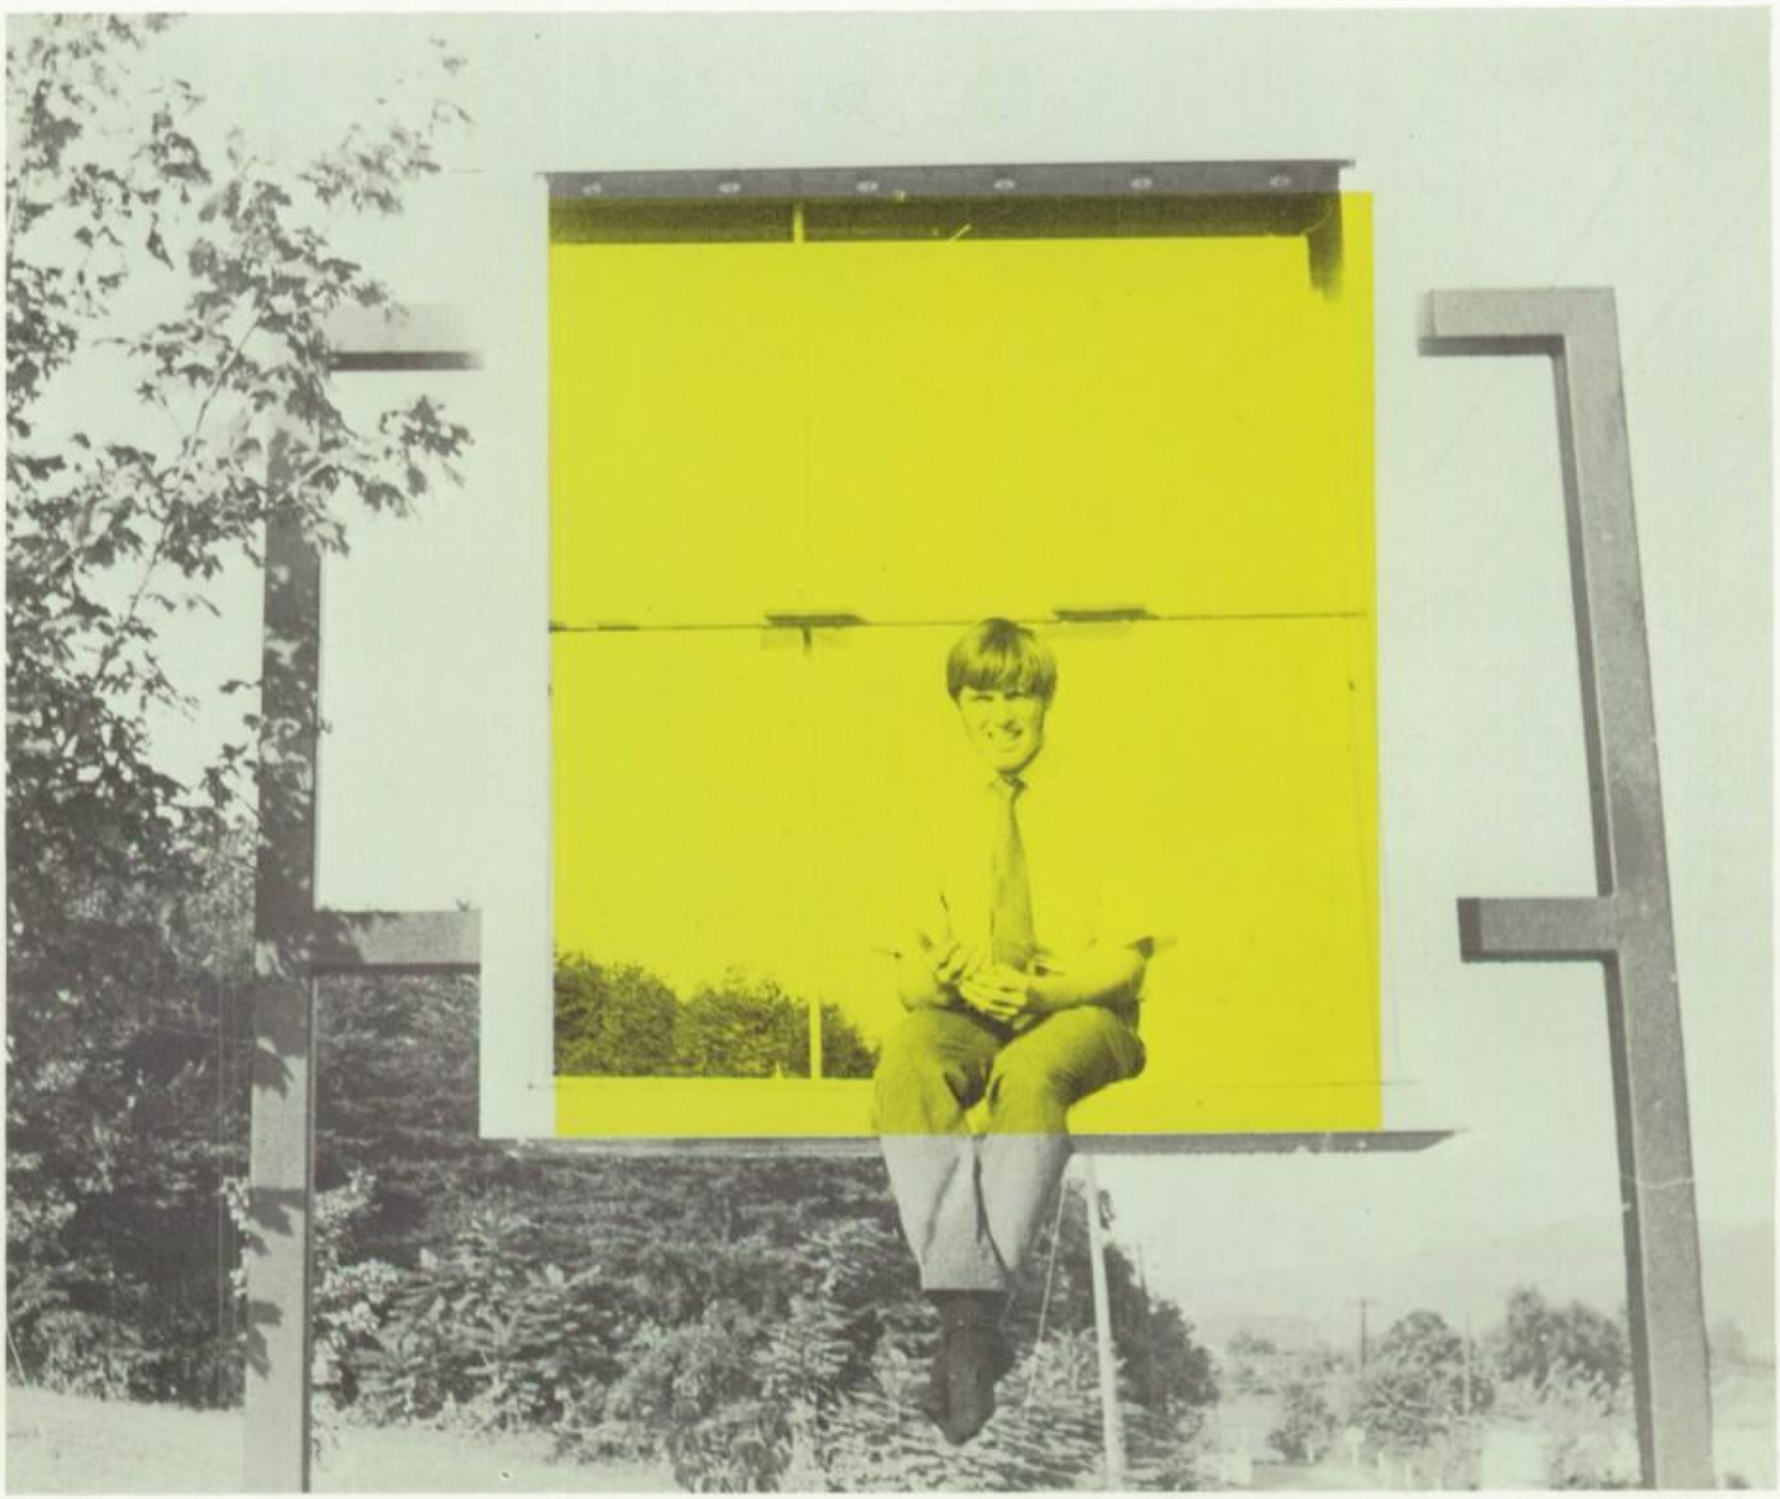
(c) 1966 beechwood music corporation



here they come
some are laughing, some are crying
here they come
and some are doing, some are trying some are selling, some are buying some are living, some are dying but demanding recognition one by one

(c) 1966 beechwood music corporation

not only learned to think, but to care
enter the young, yeah (enter the young)
enter the young, yeah (here they come)
enter the young, yeah (here they come)

Why make the nation's business yours?

Because you seek a career with challenge. Purpose. You want to help. And you want to get involved.

You'll find opportunity and fulfillment in private business, built on the capitalistic system that has given us the world's highest living standards.

American business continually searches for new and improved products, for better ways to do things, and keep costs down. Wherever there are problems to solve — in our cities, in space, under the sea — private enterprise responds with the talent and resources to bring about efficient, workable solutions.

Your work and achievement in the corporate community can be satisfying and rewarding, your contribution important. Check into opportunities in business enterprise.
